JOSIAH SMITH'S DIARY, 1780-1781

Annotated by MABEL L. WEBBER

Monday 30th July. Having enjoyed a Quiet and comfortable Sleep the past Night, both passengers & Crew, and the Flood setting in about half past four in the morning the Pilot gave orders for weighting Anchor, and with a small S. W. Breeze, got over the Vesso D'Frize, sunk against Red Bank Fort, at Billingsport. where we were hailed and order'd to Anchor, until a license shou'd come down from the Health Officer at Philadelphia, for our going up there.—to obtain which Capt. Ed.^d Blake¹ undertook to go up in the Forts Barge rowed by four of our Servants to the City at 7 O'Clock.—all Flaggs wth Prisoners on board. being subject to this necessary regulation, to prevent the spreading of infectious disorders. Mr. Isaac Holmes accompanied Capt. Blake, and Capt. Robert Cochran² also of our company, took passage in a Small Shallop Just before, and was desir'd to expedite a Pass down to the fort in case he should see us Stop there.

² Capt. Robert Cochran, commanded the brig Notre Dame, 1777; had a ship-yard; was Powder Receiver in 1778. (Ibid.) He married in 1763, Mary Elliott, daughter of Artemus Elliott and Mary Burnham, his wife. Robert Elliott Cochran, his son, married Elizabeth Snipes, 4 March, 1801, (See page 85).

Our friends & fellow Exiles in the City, hearing of our arrival as abovemention'd, a number of them in several Boats came down to us, and about noon a pass from the Commissary for Prisoners, also came down so that after a hearty repast with our Visitors, the flood making about 5 O'Clock, we weigh'd Anchor, and happily landed in about two hours, at Chestnut Street wharf, amidst a crowd of Spectators, and met with a hearty welcome from many of them. My Old friend Capt. Blewer Insisting that Mr. Darrell & myself, shou'd take up our Quarters with his family, we consented to do so 'till our familys shoud arrive from Charles-town. previous to this, his kindness had extended to my Son Samuel (who came in the fourth Flagg hither from thence) by taking him to his house &c.—

August 3rd. My dear Wife & five Children, Polly, Betsy, William, Edward, & Nancy, with my Aged Father. and four Servants, Peggy, Tenah, Hannah, & Girl Lidia having Embarked the 25th July, on board the Flagg Briggantine—

Downham Newton Master, in Company with my Sister Darrell's, Mrs. DeSaussure's and 10 other Familys, to the number of near 130 Souls Servant included, through the preserving Mercy of a Gracious God, arrived safely at Philadelphia late in the evening of this day. and on Saturday morning, the whole of my family were very kindly received into the house of my friend Col. Jno. Bayard³ who but a few months before had been happily united in marriage with another good friend Mrs. Mary Hodsden of New York.—my Daughter Betsy coming ashore Sick of a Fever, occasion'd our tarry with them for four Weeks, during which time for several days, she was in a dangerous scituation but being tended by two able Physicians, Doctors Clarkson & Jones, the latter from New York, who had kindly offer'd their Services, and faithfully adminished to her Relief, under God, were the means of restoring her again to Perfect health, & to ease my poor Wife in her distress & fatigue on this melancholy occasion, several Ladies both Old & Young, acquaintances of Mr. & Mrs. Bayard, very generously afforded their help, in sitting up at Nights &c this with affluent supplies of every article needful for my Daughters nourishment &c together with the utmost readiness in the whole family to oblige us on every occasion, demands our most grateful acknowledgements, and I hope will ever command our esteem for such worthy Characters.—nor shall we I hope ever forget the very friendly officers &c of Capt. Joseph Blewer, and his worthy Spouse, who so kindly receiv'd my Son Samuel on his arrival into his habitation, as also myself & Mr. Darrell at the time of our landing, and afterwards Mr. Darrells family. 'till he could find out a suitable habitation for us all, and which he could no otherways effect, than the place We are now at, a Country Seat of Mr. James Pembertons on the Banks of the River Scuykill, who very generously offer'd us the use of his Spacious house there, and the furniture in it, till the coming Spring, it being but a couple of Miles from the City, and very pleasantly scituated.—my Father, with Mr. Darrells family removed thither on the 7th August, and my family on the 31st but as we find that our continuance here, destitute as we are of Horses & Carriage, wou'd be very Inconvenient on many accounts, especially the fatigue we must be at in tending the Markett, attending of Publick Worship, and getting our Children regularly to School, we have resolved to get back into the City soon as we can meet with a suitable house for each of our familys, at a moderate Rent, our Finances being but small, and no hope of doing anything here to gain a penny, will oblige us to live very savingly.—My Washer Wench Nelly, with her Aged Mother Peggy, my Wife chose to leave behind her, my Man Frank with his Wife (my Cook Wench) Dolly, and her Son Cesar, all refusing to come hither, were also left in Chas'town and if they do but behave honestly, and gratefully towards me, I shall hope to get some Wages from them. Coz'n Smith writes me of 9th August, that they were all turned out from my house.⁴ The which, valuable as it is, was by Commandant Balfour, ordered to be made use of as an Hospital for British Soldiers, & thereby I fear, will be nearly ruined.—he has however promised to pay a reasonable Rent for it, but I don't expect, ever to receive payment of any such.—

⁴ Probably the old house no. 7 Meeting St., formerly the Charleston Club. (This Magazine Vol. XIX, p. 85; Dwelling Houses of Charleston, pp. 195-196.)

Sunday August 19th. This day was buried, in Arch Street Church burying Ground, the remains of my Friend, Neighbour, and Companion in Exile, John Edwards⁵ Esqr. who suddenly exchanged this (I hope) for a happier exhistance, the preceding evening by a Fit of Appoplexy. This melancholy event took place, previous to the arrival here of his much afflicted Widow, and numerous Children, his family have thereby lost a most valuable head, Religion a True friend, and the Publick a most hearty Supporter of American freedom.—

October 19th being Friday. about Six in the Evening, departed this life of Pain & Sorrow, my honoured & Aged Father,⁶ and thereby I trust, is now in the full enjoyment of a happy Immortality.— Soon after his arrival in Philadelphia, his Appetite began to fail him, often pukeing up the little food he was able to eat, which weakened him so much, that on Sunday the 30th September he was obliged to take to his Bed, and during his confinement there, was able to take but little nourishment, but was happy in the exercise of much patience and resignation, often expressing his desire (and even longing for) to depart this miserable World, and to be with Christ, which he said was far better. for the last week he became very helpless, requiring to be fed with liquids, by a Spoon only, and for the two or three days preceeding his decease, seem'd to be afflicted with much pain in the lower part of his body, owing I believe, to his not being able to discharge in the Urinary way,— upon turning him a little on his Right Side, about 8 hours before his exit, he told me in a faltering kind of Speech: That this was the day; alluding I suppose to his departure hence. Great Respect was shewn at his Interment, by the Corporation or Rulers of Arch Street Church, at whose request his Corps was deposited alongside of Two Reverend Divines, Docter Samuel Finlay, the late President of New Jersey Colledge, and Mr. Gilbert Tennant⁷ the founder & Minister for many Years, of said Church, in the Ayle fronting the Pulpit, to which place 'twas borne on the Shoulders of the Church Elders &c attended with nearly all the Clergy of different denominations in the City, with a vast number of the Inhabitants and exiled People of South Carolina. and thereto rest till the general Resurrection.—

October 23rd. being Tuesday. My Brother Darrell wth his family left our Joint habitation at Mr. Pembertons farm to reside in a comfortable Brick house he has rented at the rate of Seventy Pounds per Annum, scituated in Vernon Street, between South & Shippen Streets. my Son William for the more convenient attendance on School with Mr. Thomson, is to diet & Lodge with Mr. Darrell until I shall be able to remove my family also into the City. it being a difficult matter to rent a house there now—

October 31st This Month render'd remarkable in North America, by the Surrender of Lieut. General Burgoyne with his whole Army on the 17th October 1777. to the American Forces under the Command of Major General Gates at Saratoga. shou'd ever be had in very thankful remembrance, by every true friend to American Liberty and Independence. and the more especially, when they recollect, a repetition of the like kind Providence in their favour, on the 19th of this present Month 1781 when the Great Lord Cornwallis with his pompous Body of British Veterans &c were compelled to ask terms of Surrender (for himself, Army, Strong Posts of Yorktown & Gloucester, in Virginia, and the Shipping there) of our most worthy General George Washington, at the head of about 15000. French & American Troop^s assisted by the Fleet of our most illustrious Ally under command of the Gallant Count De-Grasse, consisting of 36 Ships of the Line, and some Frigates &c who on the 5th of September, on the appearance of the British Fleet under command of Admirals Grave^a & Hood, off the Chesapeake (sent from New York to make a diverssion in favour of Lord Cornwallis) shipped their Cable, and went in pursuit of said Fleet, came up with and engaged them, and occasion'd the Loss of one of the british 74 Gun Ships (the Tilbury) who was so much wounded in that conflict, that the Crew were obliged to Abandon her, and set on Fire. They also lost by Capture of said Fleet, Two Frigates, the Richmond and Iris of 36 Guns each, and during the Seige of York Town, their Navy suffer'd a further Loss of the Charron 44 Guns, Burnt. Gaudaloupe 32, Fowey 24, Bonetta 14 & Vulcan Fire Ship-29 Government Transport Ships, 4 Armed Vessells of the Army, 12 to 15 Galleys & Gun Boats, 4 Private Ships, 2 Dutch Prize Ships & Cargoes a new Privateer of 20 Guns & a number of Small Crafts all taked by the Combined Army, some afloat & others Sunk, but not so as to be irrecoverable, Count D'Grasse on his Passage to the Chesapeake, also Catpur'd the Cormorant Sloop of War 18 Guns, Sandwich Armed Ship of 24 and Queen Charlotte Packet Boat of 18 ditto, on board whom were Lord Rawdon & other British Officers as Passengers, bound for England from Charlestown, also several Merchant Vessels.—

November 28th 1781. being Wednesday I began to remove my goods from Mr. Pembertons Farm on Schuylkill, and soon after it came on to Sleet very heavily, then to Snow, and about noon to Rain. but notwithstanding such very bad weather & sharp Cold, thro' the help of my kind friend Col.^o Bayard, safely conveyed my family & Servants in his Carriage, to my new Habitation in the City, by the Evening.—having Rented for One Year certain of Mr. Richard Humphries to commence with the first of December, a Three Story Brick House, in Sixth Street, between Arch & Market Streets, belonging to the Widow Tilbury, at the Yearly Rent of Fifty Pounds. One half of which I paid down on taking possession, and am accountable for all the Taxes that may become due thereon within said Year, as also on the Tenement adjoining thereon,—This Rent however will not be high, when I consider what other Houses in General let at here.

December 31st. 1781. The Cruel Edict of Lieut. Col.^o Balfour Commandant of Charlestown, for Banishing from thence the Wives, Children & others dependant on those Virtuous Citizens, that wou'd not Sully their honour & Conscience by taking protection, (as too many of their Countrymen thro' fear, or Self Interest, have meanly submitted to) but rather risque every inconvenience, than to be assisting towards the enslaving of their Country. having occasioned the arrival of a large number of both Men, Women, Children & Servants, with such of their moveable effects as they could with convenience or by permission, bring with them to this City, as an Assylum or place of security, during their Exile from Carolina have hereunder inserted their Names with the Number of their respective familys & Servants.

Besides the Persons mentioned in the foregoing List a number of Men, both Officers in the Continental Line, and Militia Men of S. Carolina, were landed from Cartel Vessells at Jamestown in Virginia, who being mostly unmarried, immediately proceeded overland to Join their Virtuous Countrymen to assist in the attempt of a recovery of their oppressed Country, already in a good measure secured by the unremitted ardour of the American Army under the Command of the brave Generals Green & Wayne &c and who were also followed in the Months of September, October & November, by not a few of the Men of said List for the same laudable purpose. The distressed Scituation of the familys that were order'd to leave Charlestown by the first of August, and daily expected to arrive in Philadelphia, occasion'd an early motion to be made in Congress by the Carolina Delegates for their Relief. and on the 23rd of July, they came to the following resolve—vizt. By the United States in Congress Assembled.

Resolved that Five Suitable Persons be appointed and authorized to open a Subscription for a Loan of Thirty Thousand Dollars for the support of such of the Citizens of the States of South Carolina & Georgia as have been driven from their Country and possessions by the Enemy. the said States respectively by their Delegates in Congress pledging their Faith for the repayment of the Sums which shall be receiv'd by their respective Citizens as soon as the Legislatures of the said States Shall Severally be in condition to make provisions for so doing & Congress hereby guarantying this Obligation.

That the said Five Persons do also receive Voluntary and free Donations to be applied to the further relief of said Sufferers.—

Ann Snipes Daughter of W^m Clay Snipes & Catharine his wife was born August the 30—1780: eighty—

Susanah Snipes Daughter of W^m. Clay Snipes and Catharine his wife Born Aug^t [Day destroyed] 1782

Mary Snipes Daughter of W^m. Clay Snipes & Catharine his wife was born August the 7—1785

Robert Elliott Cochran (second Son of Robert Cochran & Mary his wife) intermarried with Elizabeth Snipes on the 4th. day of March 1801.—

William Clay Snipes, whose children's births are given above, belonged to a family who came to South Carolina from Barbadoes before 1700. William Snipes of Ashley River, carpenter, made his will 10 February, 1677, proved by "George Cantey aged about 29 years," March 2, 1677. He leaves his son Thomas Snipes, 5000 lbs. weight of Muscovado sugar, when 21: mentions property in St. Michaels, Island of Barbadoes. Leaves to his wife Margaret Snipes 5000 lbs. Muscovado sugar, she to be executrix.

George Cantey, John Stock and Ralph Marshall witnesses. (Probate Court Charleston, S. C., Book 1672-1692, page 55.)

Thomas Snipes, son of above William, died about 1709, leaving a will which is missing. He left certainly two children, Mary Snipes, who married first John Perriman, and second—Molett, and Thomas Snipes of St. Paul's Parish, who had a grant to part of the Accabee tract on Charles Town Neck, 13 Dec. 1725. (This Magazine, vol. 19, p. 47.) This second Thomas died before Feb. 1758, leaving a will. His wife was Elizabeth Clay, widow of Abram Mashow, whom she married in 1725 and had children by him. She was the daughter of William Clay, who died in St. Andrew's Parish, December 15 1740, and his wife Elizabeth, who died in 1765.

Thomas Snipes and Elizabeth (Clay) Mashow had two children: Mary, who married 7 July 1753, Philip Smith, and William Clay Snipes, born Oct. 5, 1742 (Hayne Record) and died at his plantation on the Horse Shoe, in his 64th year, 16 Feb. 1806. (This Magazine, Vol. 22, p. 162.) He married Catherine Sanders (1747-1804, Courier Oct. 15, 1804), daughter of Lawrence Sanders (April 8, 1702-1750) and his wife Sarah (1706-1794). (See Sanders Bible records, this Magazine, vol. 32, p. 243; also will of Sarah Sanders, Probate Court, Charleston, S. C., dated 30th Sept. 1793, proved 25 Oct. 1794.)

William Clay Snipes of the Round O, was a distinguished officer in Revolution; was captain in Col. Joseph Glover's Colleton County Regiment. August 5, 1775, for the Horse Shoe beat. (This Magazine, vol. 2, p. 6.)

He fought a duel on Saturday November 12, 1785, with Col. Maurice Simons, of Charleston, near Wallace's Bridge, in which Col. Simons was killed. The quarrel grew out of some evidence given by Col. Simons in an action for libel brought by Rawlins Lowndes against Major Wm. Clay Snipes. (This Magazine, vol. 19, p. 177, and vol. 12, pp. 24, and 160-162.) Major Snipes was tried for manslaughter, convicted and sentenced, but applied for and readily received a full pardon from the Governor. (The Charleston Morning Post, Feb. 21, 26, 1786.)

Benjamin Snipes, son of Wm. Clay and Catharine, born 1771, died 18th May, 1803, in his 32d. year. (This Magazine, vol. 27, p. 102.) He married, May 8th, 1791, Elizabeth Toomer, second daughter of Anthony Toomer. (Ibid., vol. 19, p. 79.) He is mentioned by his grand mother, Sarah Sanders, in her will. Benjamin Snipes was a factor in Charleston. His wife predeceased him, for his will mentions only his mother, two sisters, Mary Snipes and Elizabeth Cochran, and nephew Benjamin Logan; Col. William Fishburne and John Logan, executors; dated 11 Dec. 1801; proved Dec. 19, 1803.

Henry M. Snipes (born 1773) married Jan. 30, 1793, Mary Toomer, daughter of Anthony. He died Sept, 23, 1801, (St. Philip's Reg.)

Mary Clay Snipes, born 1785, married, Feb. 19, 1805, Col. William Fishburne (Courier, Feb. 21, 1805.) Col. Fishburne had married first Sarah Snipes.

Catherine Snipes married Thomas Postell, of St. Paul's Parish, who died in 1792 leaving wife, son Wm. Henry Postell, daughter Anna Maria, and possible unborn child (Will).—M. L. Webber.

DEATH NOTICES FROM THE SOUTH CAROLINA
GAZETTE FROM SEPTEMBER 29, 1766 TO DECEMBER 19, 1774

Contributed by MABEL L. WEBBER

Last Monday died, Mr. George Gordon, of Jamaica, who lately came here for the recovery of his health. (Thursday, Jan. 5, 1769.)

On Sunday last died, in the 90th year of her age, having lived upwards of 50 years in this province, Mrs. Ann Peacock, relict of Mr. Peacock, who died about 30 years ago. (Thursday, Jan. 12, 1769.)

Yesterday morning died at Dorchester, Mrs. Mary McNeill, the amiable consort of Doct. Archibald McNeill. (Thursday, Jan. 19, 1769.)

Last Friday died Mrs. Frances Prue, the Wife of Mr. John Prue, whose Funeral was conducted in the same Manner as the late Mrs. Gadsden's. (Monday, Feb. 16, 1769.)

Last Saturday evening, between 7 and 8 o'clock a most melancholy accident happened here, viz: A sailing boat returning from Hobcaw, in which were Capt. George Higgins of the Snow Portland, Mr. Thomas Coleman, upholsterer, Mr. John Hill, (who lived at Mr. Paul Townsend's) Mr. Thomas Gunter, an apprentice to Capt. Higgins, two negro men, and a negro boy, by some mismanagement in a sudden squall of wind, filled, and sunk, off Capt. Gadsden's Wharf, whereby Capt. Higgins, Mr. Coleman, Mr. Hill, and one of the negro men lost their lives. The rest were with some difficulty saved, as they drove by some vessels in the stream before the town. Neither the boat, nor any of the drowned have yet been found. The unfortunate Capt. Higgins, who had been married only three weeks before this catastrophe, is particularly regretted.

Last Monday morning died, John Cattell, Esq. of Wampee-Savannah, captain of the St. George's troop of horse. (Thursday, March 9, 1769.)

On the 5th instant died, in Prince William's Parish, of which he was an inhabitant, truly and greatly regretted. Mr. Robert McLeod, merchant; who, by his upright and friendly behavior, was much esteemed by the many that had the pleasure of his acquaintance. (Thursday, March 16, 1769.)

Last Friday night died, Capt. James Rodgers, formerly a Branch-Pilot for this Port and Harbour, afterwards, in the last war, commander of a privateer fitted out here, and since master of different vessels in the merchant service. He was remarkable for his bravery, and not less so for strict honour in all his dealing; but he was left an almost helpless family.

The same day the body of Mr. Thomas Coleman, one of the unfortunate persons drowned on the 4th instant, was found near Capt. Lempriere's point, and on Saturday brought to town, where, after a jury had made the necessary inquisition, it was decently interred, the Fellowship and Recess Societies attending the funeral. Last Monday the body of Mr. John Hill was likewise found, near the same place, brought to town, and buried as the former. The body of Captain George Higgins has not yet been found, nor is the boat wherein the three were drowned. (Thursday, March 23, 1769.)

Friday last, the body of the unfortunate Captain Higgins, was taken up, in the river, and the next day decently interred; most of the respectable inhabitants of the town attending the funeral, as a mark of the particular respect they bore to that worthy man when living. (Thursday, March 30, 1769.)

Last Tuesday Morning, died, Mrs. Martha Bremar, Widow of the late Mr. Francis Bremar.

The same day died, Peter Broughton, Esq. of St. John's Parish. (Thursday, May 11, 1769.)

Last Saturday died the eldest daughter of His Excellency the Right Honourable Lord Charles-Greville Montagu, Governor in Chief, etc. of this Province. And the next day His Excellency returned from his Journey to the Western Frontiers.

On Wednesday the 17th inst. died Capt. James Caird, Master of the Brigantine Ashton, of Liverpoole.

Last Friday died here, Mrs. Jane Douxsaint, a Native of this Province, aged 73 years. (Thursday, May 25, 1769.)

On Sunday last died, aged 53 years, Mrs. Susannah Bee, Relict of the late Colonel John Bee; a Lady of so amiable and exemplary a disposition, as renders her Death a Loss to Society. (Thursday, June 15, 1769.)

Sunday last died, much regretted by those who knew him, Mr. Christopher Simpson, merchant.

Last Monday died, Mr. John St. Leger, Attorney at Law. (Thursday, June 29, 1769.)

Last Sunday morning died, a Batchelor, aged 51 Years, Mr. George Matthews, who had many good Qualities, and has left a considerable Fortune—No Scarves were given at his funeral, nor, (as we hear) was any New Mourning bought, tho' the Train of Relations that attended his Funeral was very considerable. (Thursday, July 13, 1769.)

Last Saturday died, Mrs. Catharine Waring, wife of Mr. Waring. (Thursday, July 27, 1769.)

Last Night died Mr. James Sands, merchant. (Monday, Aug. 3, 1769.)

Last Monday died, Mr. Thomas Lee, Carpenter, aged fifty-nine years, thirty-five of which he has lived in this Town. (Thursday, Aug. 10, 1769.)

Yesterday se'nnight died, upwards of 75 years of Age, and a Native of this Province, Mrs. Rachel Howard, the Widow of Mr. Experience Howard, who died many years ago. (Thursday, Aug. 17, 1769.)

The same Day died, Mrs. Elizabeth Clitherall, the Wife of Dr. James Clitherall. (Thursday, Aug. 31, 1769.)

Last Friday died Thomas Smith, sen. Esq. aged 74 years, most of which he had lived in this Province.

Last Monday died the amiable consort of Mr. Thomas Walter, Merchant.

The same died, the Rev. Mr. Farmer, Rector of St. John's Parish, Berkeley County, universally regretted by his parishoners, and all that had the Pleasure of an Acquaintance with him. (Thursday, Sept. 14, 1769.)

On Thursday last died, Mrs. Ann Ward, the Wife of Mr. John Ward, Taylor. (Thursday, Sept. 21, 1769.)

Last Saturday Evening died, Mr. Joseph Ball, sen. of this Town, aged 66 years. (Thursday, Sept. 28, 1769.)

Last Sunday died, Mrs. Isabella Wish, the wife of Mr. John Wish. (Thursday, Oct. 5, 1769.)

On Friday last died, much regretted, Mr. James Reid, of Pon Pon, who was one of the representatives of the Parish of St. Bartholomew, in the present General Assembly.

The same Day also died suddenly, aged 67 years, Captain Edward Lightwood, many Years Gunner of Charles Town. (Thursday, Oct. 18, 1769.)

On Thursday last died, Mrs. Marion Charlotte Porcher, the last of six children left by Mr. Philip Gendron, one of the first French Protestants that arrived and settled at Santee, in this Province, about the year 1685, and who died about the year 1725. The following is an account of their Births, Deaths and Ages:

	Born	Died	Age
John Gendron	Oct. 12, 1690	1754	64
Magdalen Prioleau	Oct. 13, 1691	1765	74

Last Saturday morning died, much regretted by the Gentlemen of the Turf, and all his Acquaintance, Mr. Thomas Nightingale, who has for several years past kept the House and Course called New-Market.

On Sunday Night died, Mr. David Stoddard, Merchant.

Last Tuesday died Mrs. Elizabeth Williams, Wife of Robert Williams, jun, esq.

The humorous Mr. John Snelling, and Mr. James Duthie.

Died, Nov. 9th, Mrs. Patience Catharine Stevens, Wife of Mr. Daniel Stevens, after a long and lingering illness, which she bore with steady patience, and Christian Resignation. (Thursday, Nov. 9, 1769.)

On Tuesday last died, Mrs. Elizabeth Fuller, wife of Thomas Fuller, Esq. of St. Andrew's Parish. (Thursday, Nov. 23, 1769.)

Last Monday died, much regretted, Whitmarsh Fuller, Esq. of St. Andrew's Parish.

Yesterday morning died, Mr. Elijah Prioleau. (Thursday, Dec. 7, 1769.)

On Tuesday died, universally regretted, John Chapman, Esq. an eminent Merchant of this Town. (Thursday, Dec. 14, 1769.)

Last Saturday Morning died, in the 71st year of her age Mrs. Judith Wragg, Relict of the Hon. Joseph Wragg, Esq.; she was a native of this Province, and as she lived universally and deservedly respected, so she died no less lamented. (Thursday Dec. 21, 1769.)

On Thursday last died, aged 84, Mrs. Ann Austin, Relict of the late Colonel Robert Austin. She arrived in this Province about 40 years of age. (Thursday, Jan. 11, 1770.)

About a month ago died at Purrysburg, aged 96 Years, Mrs. Magdalen Truan, possessing all her Faculties up to her Death; She came into this Province upwards of 30 Years ago, after having undergone the most severe Persecutions in France, during which she lived concealed for a considerable Time in the Cave of a Rock.

On Sunday last died, aged 75 Years, Mr. Daniel Bourcet, one of the oldest Inhabitants of this Town; and who, by dint of Industry, had acquired a very considerable Fortune.

Last Monday Night, died suddenly, (having been upon the Grand Jury all the Week before) James Sharp, Esq. of Ponpon; a sensible, facetious and valuable man, such as one of our most celebrated Poets stiles "the noblest Work of God." (Thursday, Jan. 25, 1770.)

Last Monday Night, died, Ebenezer Simmons, Esq. (Thursday, Feb. 1, 1770.)

Last Friday died suddenly, Captain Thomas Courtin, Master of the Brigantine Polly, of Poole, lately arrived from Newfoundland.

MARRIAGE AND DEATH NOTICES FROM THE CITY
GAZETTE AND DAILY ADVERTISER

Copied by ELIZABETH HEYWARD JERVEY

Departed this life on Sunday, the 14th instant Mr. Samuel J. Elliott in the 35th year of his age. He has left a wife with two small children, a mother, sister and a numerous acquaintance. to deplore his transitory exit. He was of the strictest probity, and nought e'er escaped his lips intended to wound the feelings of his fellow creatures; he was feelingly alive to the distress of others and woul participate in their sufferings with a sorrow which could not fail to evince the sincerity of his heart, and prove that in him there was no guile: as a companion he was agreeable, and as a friend he was sincere—tho' we mourn his loss, we have the consolation to assuage our grief, of his having gone to "another and better world" there to receive the sanctifying grace of his blessed Redeemer

Died suddenly, on the night of the 15th instant, of an apoplectic fit, Mr. William Hammond, a native of Cheshire, England.

The Friends and Acquaintanaces of Mr. Henry Doggett, jun are requested to attend his Funeral, This Morning, at 10 o'clock, from his father's house, in Lamboll-street. (Thursday January 18, 1810.)

Married, in this city, on Tuesday evening last, by the Rev. Mr. Simons, William Sinkler, Esq. of St. John's parish, to Miss Eliza Brown, daughter of the late Archibald Brown, esq. [Printed Brown, but her name was Broun.]

Died, in Abbeville district, on Sunday, 31st December, 1809, William Atwood, a native of Ireland, aged 102. (Friday January 19, 1810.)

Married, on Wednesday evening, by the Rev. Dr. Hollinshead, Mr. Wm. L. Porter, merchant, to Miss Ann Saylor, youngest daughter of the late Mr. David Saylor. (Saturday, January 20, 1810.)

Died, near Statesburgh, on the 14th instant, Elizabeth James, eldest daughter of Judge James.

London, November 28.

The Marquis of Landsdowne—On Wednesday morning last, at five o'clock, died, at Landsdowne-house, in Berkley-square, the Most Noble the Marquis of Landsdowne. His lordship was married a few years since to Lady Gifford, but he left no issue. His titles and estates devolve in consequence to his only brother, Lord Henry Petty, now Marquis of Landsdowne. (Monday, January 22, 1810.)

Married, on Saturday the 20th inst. capt. John Geyer, Planter, to the amiable Mrs. Mary Oakford, of this city.

Married, on Thursday evening last, in Clarendon County, by the Rev. Thomas Anderson, colonel Alexander Colclough to Miss Mary Sims; both of that county.

Died, on the 15th inst. in the 39th year of her age, Mrs. Esther Sturgis, wife of Josiah Sturgis, esq. Mrs. Sturgis was a native of Boston, (Mass.) but had resided for many years in this city during which time she acquired the friendship and esteem of a large circle of acquaintances. Her mind can conciliary manners, her amiable and benevolent disposition, endeared her to society while living; and now awake the tear of unavailing sorrow. To her family and relatives, many of whom are yet to learn this afflicting occurrence, it must be peculiarly distressing. Yet there is a mournful pleasure in contemplating the virtues of the deceased, and

Memory still hovers o'er her grave,

As evening sunbeams love to linger on the wave. (Wednesday, January 24, 1810.)

Married, on Saturday evening last, by the Rev. Mr. Simons, capt. John Geyer, to Mrs. Mary Oakford, all of this city.

Married, on Saturday evening last by the Rev. Dr. Gallagher, Doctor John W. Schmidt, to Miss Ursule Dumont, only daughter of the late Doctor Dumont.

Married, on Tuesday evening by the Rev. Mr. Flinn, Mr. Samuel Cook, to Mrs. Margaret Brebner; both of this city.

Died yesterday morning, Mr. John Porter aged 27 years, son of Mr. Israel Porter of Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Died, on the 10th inst. in the 81st year of his age, of a lingering complaint, Mr. William Hudson, a resident of Edgefield, South-Carolina. The loss of this truly good man is most sincerely lamented by surviving relatives—He had been a member of the Baptist Church thirty-five or forty years, during which time he lived a life void of offence; and in the last illness, though tortured with excessive pain, his ideas of Eternal happiness after Death, were bright and clear, and he longed to be dissolved, that he might be with Jesus, where pain and sorrow are no more known. (Thursday, January 25, 1810.)

Columbia (S. C.) January 20.

Departed this life, on Friday the 12th inst. Major John Goodwyn, an old and much respected inhabitant of this district. Few have been more esteemed in their lives or lamented in their deaths. To a naturally strong and masculine understanding, he added the greatest integrity and goodness of heart, with manners at once open, manly and conciliating. In him a beloved wife has been bereft of a tender and affectionate husband, a very numerous, and in great part, infant family, of a kind and careful parent, and his country of a valuable and patriotic citizen.

A very remarkable circumstance attending his last illness was, that he foresaw and foretold the moment of his death, several days previous to its approach. He contemplated it with all the calmness and fortitude with which he could meet the most indifferent event. If he possessed foibles, (as none are exempt) they can never be remembered by those who enjoyed his acquaintance or knew his worth. (Saturday, January 27, 1810.)

Departed this life, in the 44th year of his age, on Saturday the 20th inst. after a short and painful, inflamatory illness, which he bore with fortitude and resignation, Dr. Samuel C. Dunlap, Ordinary of Lancaster District. In his death a wife has sustained the loss of the tenderest of husbands, five children the most affectionate of parents, and a numerous relationship the worthiest of connections. The unfortunate sons and daughters of relentless poverty and pinching wants will justly lament the untimely exit of their earthly benefactor; the widow and the orphan, the unexpected removal of a friend and a father; and the District in which he lived the departure of a character who had filled its places of honor and trust, with the most scrupulous exactness. In his composition, was such a happy mixture of the dignity and excellence of human nature, such an union of all the essential requisites to complete the great and good man—Involuntarily are we prompted to exclaim, Oh! Death, where was they sting; Oh! Grave, where was thy victory. (Wednesday, January 31, 1810.)

On the 13th of last month, a very melancholy event took place at the Oakaties, in the southern parts of this state. Capt. Benjamin Johnson, had taken with him from his residence in Beaufort, in his vessel the Themes, his only son, Master Benjamin Armstrong Johnson, a lively amiable, and promising child, between 7 and 8 years of age. While the vessel was lying at anchor in the Oakaties river, and the captain attending to the loading in the hold, Master Johnson, being anxious to go on shore got into a boat lying at the side of the vessel, a boy on deck, hearing him call his father, went to the vessel's side, and saw the child in the boat; in a minute or two afterwards, his father enquired for him, but he could not be found—having no doubt in that time fallen overboard—nor has he been seen since.

Every exertion possible to recover the body, was immediately made, by diving and dragging with hooks, and a seine afterwards, in which the distressed father was assisted by many sympathising friends—but all in vain.

By this distressing event, two affectionate parents have been deprived of their only child: the fond hopes and expectations of relations and friends blasted; and a striking example set before us, of the uncertainty of human life, and the instability of earthy happiness.

"Lean not on earth; 't will pierce thee to the heart

"A broken reed at best; but oft a spear." (Thursday, February 1, 1810.)

Married, on Thursday evening, by the Rev. Dr. Hollinshead, Mr. William Cudworth, to Mrs. Sarah Hall; both of this city. (Saturday, February 3, 1810.)

Married, on Tuesday evening last, by the Rev. Mr. Gadsden, Mr. Samuel George King, to Miss Elizabeth Ann Fisklea, both of St. John's parish, Berkley.

Married, on Thursday evening, the 1st inst. by the Rev. Dr. Furman Mr. Christopher Rouse, to Mrs. Charlotte Dowdney; both of this place.

Married on St. Helena Island, on the 24th ult. by the Rev. Mr. Palmer, Isaac Grimball Jennings, Esq. to Miss Isabel Caroline

Fripp second daughter of William Fripp, Esq., deceased. (Monday, February 5, 1810.)

Married on Thursday evening last, by the Rev. Dr. Adam Snell, Mr. Francis Harrison, to Miss Ann Meeds, of Santee.

Died, on Saturday last, at his plantation in St. John's parish, Stephen Mazyck, Esq. in the 61st year of his age, sincerely regretted by his relations and friends.

Died, on the 28th ultimo, Mrs. Susan Wilkinson Pickens, wife of Andrew Pickens, jun of Pendleton—She had just completed the 21st year of her life, when she was cut down in the morning of her days. Her mild, amiable and excellent qualities secured the esteem of all who knew her, and her modest unassuming worth, will be long and tenderly recollected by her many relations and friends; to whom she was most deservedly dear. She has left a husband and two small children, to lament the loss of a most tender and affectionate wife and mother. (Thursday February 8, 1810.)

Married, on Tuesday evening, by the Rev. Mr. Simons, Peter Bacot, Esquire, to Miss Mary Eugenia Cochran, daughter of Charles B. Cochran, esq. (Friday, February 9, 1810.)

Died, at Kingston, (Jam) on the 21st of December last, Mr. Joseph De Costa, a native of this city, aged 50 years.

The Friends and Acquaintances of Dr. John Crawford, are requested to attend his Funeral from his late residence, No. 15 Broad Street, This Afternoon, at 4 o'clock. (Monday, February 12, 1810.)

Alarming Mortality—In Dana, Worcester county, Mr. Thomas Templin, aged 37. He was well on the 21st inst. and a corpse the succeeding day. By his decease, his wife is deprived of the best of husbands, six children of a kind and affectionate parent, and the town of one of its most valuable inhabitants. Five other grown persons, and several children, have, within a week, died in the same town of the same disorder, viz.—Mr. Simeon Gleason, aged 43; Mr. Jonas Hall aged 23; Mr. Jonathan Whitmore, aged 27; Mr. John Johnson; Miss Sally Tolman, aged 17. Mr. Whitmore was well and at work one day and dead the next; Miss Tolman was at the funeral of Mr. W. and dead herself the following day.

The town is filled with terror. Several were seized with this mortal distemper the day the bearer of this article left that town.

The Physicians do not know what to denominate it. It appears like the spotted fever. Some are taken with a sudden stoppage of the circulation of the blood—some become immediately speechless—yellow and purple spots appear in a few hours.—Boston Patriot, 27th ult. (Wednesday, February 14, 1810.)

Died, on Sunday the 11th inst. in Christ Church Parish, Mr. Moses Whitesides, in the 40th year of his age; he has left two Sons and a number of relatives and friends to lament his death.

A wit's a feather, a Chief's a rod,

An Honest Man's the noblest work of God. (Thursday, February 15, 1810.)

Departed this life, on Tuesday the 13th February, Mr. James Ralston, aged 27 years; he was a native of Scotland, but for many years a resident of this city.—While honest worth finds a place in the bosom of each of his surviving acquaintance, his memory will still be cherished. (Saturday, February 17, 1810.)

The Friends and Acquaintances of the late Clement Vaillant, are invited to attend his Funeral This Morning, at eight o'clock, from his residence, in Queen street, opposite the French Protestant Church. (Monday, February 19, 1810.)

Married, on the 20th inst. by the Rev. Dr. Furman, Mr. Robert Guerin, to Miss Mary Ellis; both of this city. (Thursday, February 22, 1810.)

Erratum.—In the marriage of Mr. Robert Guerin, in yesterday's Gazette instead of "Miss," read Mrs. Mary Ellis.

The Friends and Acquaintances of Mrs. Robert Howard, are invited to attend her Funeral This Afternoon, at four o'clock, from her late residence, No. 1 George-street.

The Friends and Acquaintances of the late Mr. Francis Canutt, are invited to attend his Funeral This Afternoon, at 4 o'clock, from his late residence in Middle-street, Gadsden's Green. (Friday, February 23, 1810.)

Married, in Newberry District, on the 25th of January, by the Rev. Mr. Owens, Mr. Neil Bradley, to Miss Lucy Owens; both of said place.

Married, in St. Phillip's Church, on the 15th instant, by the Rev. James D. Simons, Mr. William Arms, to Miss Louisa Fitzsimons; both of this city. (Monday February 26, 1810.)

Married, on Thursday evening last, by the Rev. Mr. Kennedy,

Mr. John Buckingham, to Mrs. Mary Wilson; both of this city. (Tuesday, February 27, 1810.)

Married in Scriven County, (Georgia) on Thursday the 15th ult. by the Rev. Mr. Hand, Frederick Jay Hay, esq. of Barnwell District, (S. C.) and late of New York, to Miss Susan Cynthia Brown, only daughter of Charles Jones Brown esq. deceased.

Departed this life on the 21st inst. in the 66th year of her age, Mrs. Ann Howard, widow of the late Mr. Robert Howard, of this city. This amiable lady possessed such qualities, as strongly endeared her to every one who was acquainted with her. Sons and daughters, bewail in deep sorrow, the loss of a fond and affectionate parent—numerous friends lament, in her death, departed worth—the poor heave a deep sigh after their lost benefactress—and the big tear of sorrow rolls down the cheek of those, who knew in her, the humane and good mistress. The above is not a false panegyric; it is the feelings of one who, when she was living, respected her virtues; and in her death mourn's a loss irreparable to many. (Friday, March 2, 1810.)

Died, at Paris, on the 6th of December, Peter Dufournell, formerly physician, and patriarch of the free masons, in the 120th year of his age.

Married, on Thursday evening last, by the Rev. Mr. Simons, Mr. John Hoey, of this city, to Mrs. Mary Estes, of St. Bartholomew's parish. (Thursday March 8, 1810.)

Died, on the 26th ult. Mrs. Ann Elfe, consort of George Elfe, Esq. of St. Thomas' Parish. (Saturday, March 10, 1810.)

Departed this life on Thursday, the 8th inst. in the 39th year of her age Mrs. Margaret Maria Pinckney the amiable, and regretted wife of Thomas Pinckney, junior, esq. of St. Bartholomew's. . . .

To her afflicted husband and children, her loss is great, but they are consoled in the reflection, that though removed from this sublunary sphere, beyond this transtory scene of things, her soul, translated to the bosom of her God, will there reap the reward of her sufferings. Mild and unassuming in her manners, friendly and generous, she merited and enjoyed the affections of her family, and the esteem and respect of her acquaintances and friends. [Lines.]

Died, in this city, on the 10th inst. in the 23d year of his age, Mr. James Lee, after a long and painful illness, which he bore with resignation and fortitude, a native of Liverpool, (Eng.) (Tuesday, March 13, 1810.)

Died, in Abbeville district, on the 28th ult. Mrs. Susanna S. Pickens, wife of Andrew Pickens, jun. Esq. of Pendleton, aged 22 years. . . .

Died, on the 8th inst. on James Island, Mrs. Esther Rivers, in the 40th year of her age, after a severe and distressing sickness of two months. To her bereaved family, her relatives and friends, her loss is truly great. Of this amiable Lady it may truly be said, she possessed in a high degree all those qualities, which insured her esteem from all who were in the habits of intimacy with her.

Died, at the plantation of Alex. R. Chisolm, esq. in Prince William's Parish on the 7th instant, Mrs. Jane Ingles, the wife of Mr. William Ingles, of St. Paul's Parish—a lady much and deservedly regretted by her near relatives and friends.

Died, on Monday evening, 12th inst. Mrs. Sarah Moses, in the 63d year of her age, consort to Mr. Philip Moses, formerly merchant in this place and daughter to the deceased Rev. David Machado, of New-York. . . .

Died, on the 4th inst. at Belvidere, his seat, near Charleston, Colonel Thomas Shubrick. The distinguished military services of this gentleman during the American revolutionary war are well known, not only by his friends, but, in the history and in the official records of those times. He served with great gallantry and ability as the aid-de-camp of Gen. Lincoln while he had the command of the Southern department of the American army; and he was present at the intrepid, though unsuccessful attack on Savannah. He was also an Aid to Gen. Greene, and conducted himself with so much bravery in the well fought action at Eutaw, as to merit the thanks of Congress, and a medal, which was presented to him by order of that assembly. But, it was not only in the field, that this valuable citizen distinguished himself; he was commissary of prisoners in the Southern department, and by his ability in settling the cartel, relieved a number of his brethren of the army from the horrors of British captivity. His useful life was terminated at the age of only fifty-four years, by the consequences of those hardships, which his devotion to his country had occasioned. His friends will long deplore his loss, and his country mourn the departure of another of her gallant sons, who was both a sword and a buckler to her, in the season of her adversity. (Wednesday, March 14, 1810.)

Married, in Georgetown, (Pot. [omac]) on the 22d Feb. the Hon. William B. Giles. Senator in the Congress of the United States, to Miss Frances Ann Gwynn, eldest daughter of the late Thomas Peyton Gwynn, of Virginia.

Charles B. Brown editor of the Semi-Annual Register, a gentleman well known in the literary world, died at Philadelphia on the 21st ultimo—Baltimore paper.

Died, at his residence in Darlington district, on Friday, 9th inst. in the 37th year of his age, the Hon. Samuel Wilds, one of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas.

Departed this life, Captain Thomas Rhodes, of this city, and son of the late Dr. John Rhodes of the city of New-Haven in the state of Connecticut; who served faithfully in the revolutionary armies of the United States, and whose upright, just and faithful conduct through life is well known to the first characters of this city—He has left a widow and three children to lament his loss.

Died, on the 12th inst. in this city, where he had come for the establishment of his health, Brigadier General Hunt, of New Jersey, Adjutant General of the Militia of that state. It must be consolatory to the feelings of his afflicted relatives and friends to learn, that this gentleman received here all that sympathy for his sufferings, and regard for his memory, which their own affectionate zeal would have displayed. By request of General Read, a detachment of the 17th brigade performed the melancholy honors of his interment, and the officers of the different regiments in the city united in accompanying to their last sad abode, the remains of the departed stranger. (Friday, March 16, 1810.)

Married, on Thursday evening last, by the Rev. Mr. Simons, Henry C. Glover, Esq. to Miss Harriet Ann Cart, second daughter of John Cart, Sen. Esq. (Saturday March 17, 1810.)

Departed this transitory existence on the 12th inst. in the 14 year of his age, after a lingering and protracted illness, Master Isaac Marks, youngest son of Mr. Humphrey Marks. Genuine sensibility of soul and filial affection, were the eminent characteristics which marked his early youth, and endeared him to his parents, brothers and acquaintances. . . . (Tuesday, March 20, 1810.)

At a meeting of the Gentlemen of the Bar in Charleston, convened on Monday forenoon for the purpose of expressing their respect for the memory of the Honorable Judge Wilds, recently deceased, Timothy Ford, Esq. was called to the Chair, and a Committee appointed to frame Resolutions, expressive of the object of the meeting, consisting of the following gentlemen:—The Hon. Langdon Cheves, Wm. Loughton Smith, Esq., Wm. Drayton, Esq., Keating L. Simons, Esq. Charles Fraser, Esq.

Who reported . . . resolutions . . . which were adopted . . .

Married on Thursday evening last, by the Rev. Dr. Dehone, Leger Hutchinson, Esq. to Miss Ann Nathaniel Farr, Daughter of the late Nathaniel Farr, Esq.

Died, in Petersham, Massachusetts, on the 6th inst. Dr. John Flint, aged 30, and his son, aged 7: A most lamentable occurrence. Dr. Flint was one of the most eminent physicians in that section of the country. The morning before he died, he and his family were in perfect health. He visited a number of patients in Barre, and an adjoining town; on his return he was attacked, by that fatal disease which is making such mournful ravages in Petersham and its vicinity, the spotted fever; he lived but a few minutes after his return to his family. His child was seized by the same fever, during his absence, and died about the same time. Besides the indscribable grief of a wife and three children, at this awful period, all that part of the country in which he lived, are in tears, for a loss to them irreparable.—Philadelphia paper. (Wednesday, March 21, 1810.)

Died, in this city, on board the brig. Mary, J. B. Philips, master, on the 12th inst. after a passage from the Havanna, where he went for the restoration of his health, Doctor Robert G. Jennings of Lynchburg, in the state of Virginia. "It must be consolatory to the feelings of his afflicted relatives and friends to learn that this gentleman received here all the sympathy for his sufferings and regard for his memory which their own affectionate zeal would have displayed; a number of friends accompanying to their last sad abode the remains of the departed stranger." (Thursday, March 22, 1810.)
